

DMI'S COMPLETE PODCAST

ALL NEW!

Your voice. Your story.
Your complete podcast solution.

Your podcast is your personal meeting with perspective clients from anywhere, as they listen when it's most convenient to them. DMI's Complete Podcast podcast includes a production of one 30 second & 60 second radio commercial to promote your podcast and drive traffic to your website.

Your podcast series allows you to dive deeper into your professional services and share personal stories of success. Each podcast episode brings your listeners closer as you build a personal relationship with them.

Your podcast is your voice; recorded, produced, and distributed everywhere. Plus, it's the vital and effective tool to have in this growing digital age.

Through a partnership with North Star Media, DMI's Complete Podcast includes:

- Pre-podcast recording conference call or video to review content and topics so you will be prepared and ready to record.
- Podcast Episode bullet points and Outline.
- Podcast branding download/CTA.
- Radio host - A broadcast professional radio talk show host will host/interview (Approx. 20-60 mins in length).
BONUS: With little editing and no additional fees you can use your fully produced, edited, and licensed podcast for your own radio show.
- Production, editing, and licensing for radio broadcast edited and licensed for radio broadcast. You can use your podcast as a radio show with little editing and no additional fees.
- Little to no equipment needed. In most cases it's a Zoom session with a USB microphone.
